Programme Feedback Elena Shmoilova, Master student, study field "Economics": Master studies give a chance to do research in the economic sphere that I find really interesting – global gas business analysis. In my Master's thesis "The Study of Global Oil and Gas Business Development" I monitor the current state of oil and gas market, do dynamic analysis and data time correction, conduct monitoring of oil and gas market and energy prices. It's very exciting.
